

Free Congress
Foundation

FREE CONGRESS FOUNDATION

1423 Powhatan Street, #2
Alexandria, Virginia 22314

Contact: Bob Thompson
703-837-0481

Email: rthompson@freecongress.org

January 15, 2010

FREE CONGRESS FOUNDATION PRESIDENT JIM GILMORE ANNOUNCES HAITIAN EMERGENCY RELIEF EFFORT

Alexandria, Virginia: The Free Congress Foundation today announced that it is participating in the relief efforts for the victims of the devastating earthquake in the capital city of Port-au-Prince, Haiti which destroyed much of the city of Tuesday, January 12, 2010.

The Free Congress Foundation is asking its supporters to contribute to a relief fund it has established through its web site, www.freecongress.org/donation, or by sending a check to its headquarters at 1423 Powhatan Street #2 Alexandria, VA 22314. All donations will go to the Haitian relief effort.

Free Congress Foundation President and CEO, James S. Gilmore, III said, "Conservatives are deeply concerned about the terrible suffering caused by this earthquake. We certainly want to do our part, and to afford a means for conservative donors to help these victims." The Free Congress Foundation intends to partner with organizations with a track record of effective use of funds in a time of great emergency and need. The Foundation will cooperate with, among others, Samaritan's Purse, established by Franklin Graham, which; already has medical teams in Haiti.

The Free Congress Foundation is a charitable educational organization, dedicated to offering sensible conservative problem solving, and good policy for the citizens of the United States.